2020/21 SEASON – DATES FOR THE DIARY

There is so much to look forward to as we lead into our 50th season at Hornsby District Little Athletics. We are deep in planning and wanted to share with you our start of season dates as details begin to emerge.

It will come as no surprise to you all that there have been some necessary changes to how we start the season; catering for the delayed winter sports and adjusting our protocols to be Covid Safe. Naturally all planned events are subject to NSW guidelines and updates will be provided if changes are required.

More details for all the below will follow in due course, but for now, please take note of these dates, and we can't wait to see you all soon.
